(about us)

AROUND THE YEAR 1873, THE FIRST PUBLIC HOSPITAL IN IRAN WAS OPENED, NAMEDLY "MARIZKHANEH DOLATI" BY THE ORDER OF KING NASER AL-DIN SHAH. IN 1940, ITS NAME WAS CHANGED TO "SINA HOSPITAL", INSPIRED BY THE NAME OF IBN SINA (980-1037), THE FAMOUS IRANIAN PHYSICIAN. HAVING MORE THAN 150 YEARS OF MEDICAL EXPERIENCE IN MOST SPECIALIZED AND SUB-SPECIALIZED BRANCHES, SINA HOSPITAL IS PROUD TO SERVE THE COMMUNITY AS ONE OF THE AFFILIATED HOSPITALS OF THE TEHRAN UNIVERSITY OF MEDICAL SCIENCES

As Tehran city is developed, Sina hospital which is located in the 12th district, is also developing thanks to increasing its active beds in the surgical, internal, and diagnostic departments. Today, by accepting most special patients (i.e., MS patients), Sina is known as a patient-friendly hospital all over the country.
